I T WAS MY MOTHER'S VOICE.

Oh, mother dear, I had a dream.

So sad, and yet so bright.

When wended on the battle plain.

I lay at dead of night;

A gentle strain fell on my ear.

It was my mother's voice—

So soft and sweet, it seemed to me.

It was my mother's voice.

NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

Established every TUESDAY and FRIDAY, and contains all the Editorial articles not merely local in character; Literary Reviews and Art Criticisms; Letters from our large corps of war correspondents; Foreign and Domestic Letters; Special and General News; Extraordinary Stories; and a complete Summary of Foreign and Domestic News; Exclusive Reports of the Proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute; Tales about Fruits, and other Horticultural and Agricultural Information; Stock, Financial, Commercial, Dry Goods, &c. Price 25 cents. Will be sent to the DAILY TRIBUNE. It frequently contains articles which the rest pressure of advertisements will not permit to put in the Daily. The SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE also gives in the course of a year, THREE or FOUR of the BEST AND LATEST POPULAR NOVELS.

By living authors. The cost of these alone, if bought in book form, would be six to eight dollars. If purchased in the ENGLISH MAGAZINES from which they are carefully selected, the cost would be three or four times that sum. Nowhere else can so much current intelligence and permanent history be obtained at such a rate as in THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. Those who believe in the principles and approve of the character of THE TRIBUNE can increase its power and influence by joining with their neighbors in forming clubs to subscribe for THE SEMI-WEEKLY Edition. It is in this way that we supplied the first 100 copies of the first volume, and a paper is printed. Persons residing in the city can find no more valuable journal to send to their country friends.
